Each year, SVCF awards more than 700 scholarships. Learn more about some of these recipients through their stories:

ALEXIS

“I appreciate all the work that you do for students. By removing the stress of having to find the means to fund an education or pay for living expenses, you allow us to focus on our academics.”

—ALEXIS

Alexis is a recipient of the Latinos in Technology Scholarship and pursuing a bachelor’s degree in Mechanical Engineering.

ALINA

“Finding a full-time job will be stressful and the current COVID-19 situation will not make it any easier; however, I am thankful for this scholarship because rather than finding another way to fund my education, I will now be able to invest that time towards finding a job.”

—ALINA

Alina is a recipient of the Samsung@First Scholarship and is pursuing a master’s in Mechanical Engineering.

MARIO

“I am grateful to be recognized by this scholarship. All I needed was a little help. It makes all the difference to my dreams and aspirations.”

—MARIO

Mario is a recipient of the Latinos in Technology Scholarship pursuing a bachelor’s degree in Computer Engineering and Physics.

HANNAH

“Thank you, not simply for your financial kindness, but even more so for your belief in my potential to enact positive change in the medical community and wider world.”

—HANNAH

Hannah is a recipient of the Dr. James L. Hutchinson and Evelyn Ribbs Hutchinson Medical School Scholarship.
